

Making the most of sketchbooks

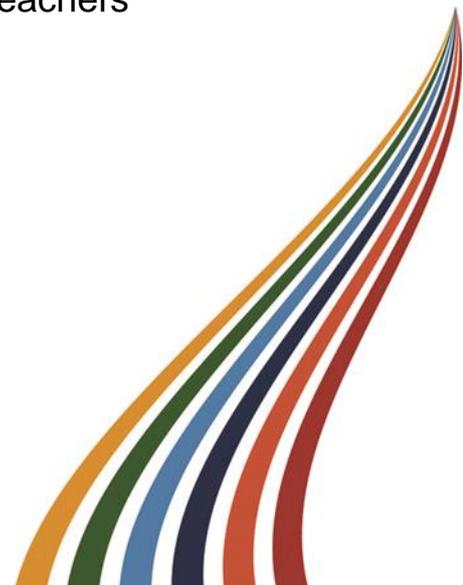

Curriculum links: Art, Craft and Design

Primary Art subject leaders and primary school teachers

15th November 2017

1pm – 4pm

Artemis, 45 Marshall St, Leeds, LS11 9RZ

For Key Stage 2 pupils, the use of sketchbooks is a National Curriculum requirement and using a sketchbook can be beneficial for children of all ages. This session will explore how sketchbooks can be developed as a rich resource, for recording, researching and documenting pupils' ideas and inspiration.

Used effectively, sketchbooks can be embedded across the curriculum and can allow children to focus their thoughts, think creatively and reflect on their learning.

This is a hands on, practical session, designed to give you the confidence to develop the use of sketchbooks in your own classroom.

The course will include:

- Making your own sketchbook
- Exploring ideas to use in your sketchbook
- Experimenting with mark making

Cost

£125

NB If your school has purchased the Art/s Subject Leader Package, a member of staff can attend this training for a cost of £110.
