

Feltmaking For All

Get creative and cross-curricular with felt!

Wednesday 11th November, Leeds City Academy, 4.00pm – 5.30pm

Delivered by experienced teacher and artist, Anna Pickard, this session will explore how feltmaking can be used across the curriculum providing a vehicle for literacy, history, geography and science. Feltmaking is a unique, creative and hands on educational art activity accessible to children of all ages and abilities. This is a practical session. Participants will have the opportunity to see techniques modelled, and will have a go at making their own piece of felt. A detailed lesson plan will be provided to enable teachers to use the session in their own setting.

Anna Pickard is an artist and specialist teacher of Art and Design. She has worked in Primary and Secondary schools for 17 Years. She also teaches Art and Design to Primary PGCE trainees at Leeds University.

Cost:

ArtForms Arts Development SLA schools: One teacher place included through SLA. Additional staff £40

Non SLA schools: £60 per delegate
