

Live Music in Schools Christmas 2017

Seasonal performances to enrich music provision

Supported using public funding by

The Live Music in Schools programme provides an exciting, informative and fully inclusive opportunity for your pupils to hear and to interact with professional musicians. Inspiring and encouraging creativity, self-confidence and mental wellbeing, experiencing live music is a core part of the Primary National Curriculum for Music.

Available for this Christmas:

Aire Ensemble – Flute, Clarinet and Piano Trio. Entertaining and interactive performance enabling pupils to listen and get involved in a range of music.

ArtForms Woodwind Trio - Showcasing the full range of the Woodwind family to help pupils access the National Curriculum through a wide range of musical genres. Exploring Christmas through songs, movement and creative music.

Elizabeth Kenwood-Herriott and Peter Reasbeck – Woodwind/Piano Duet. An exploration of traditions, genres, styles and history in music using woodwind instruments and piano.

Forte! (Music and the Deaf) – Instrumental Quartet. Classical performances by professional deaf musicians for both deaf and hearing audiences. The programme features an interactive session around deafness and inclusion in music-making.

Maia – Folk Rock Quartet. Expect a high energy show with plenty of sing-along moments. The performance incorporates various styles of music played on guitar, ukulele, banjo, mandolin, keyboard and percussion, including cajon and djembe. Suitable for KS1, KS2.

Point of Departure – Jazz Trio. Performance and Creativity through Jazz and Blues - an interactive performance to build confidence, creativity, improvisation and knowledge of the genres.

Leeds Music Education Partnership (LMEP) is delighted to subsidise performances for all Leeds schools. Cost to the school is £76 max 2 hours (afternoon), £114 max 3 hours (morning), £153 max 4 hours (am & pm)

NB: as this scheme is already subsidised by LMEP, schools may not use any other LMEP grant to pay for performances they book.
