There'll be blue birds o - ver the white cliffs of Do-ver, to - mor - row love and laugh-ter, and peace e - ver af - ter, to - mor - row just you wait and see. There'll be free. The shep-herd will tend his when the world is sheep, the val-ley will bloom a - gain. and Jim-my will go to sleep in his own lit - tle room a - gain. There'll be blue birds o - ver the white cliffs of Do-over, to - mor - row, just you wait and see.

This is in the key of D major, so you can warm-up with the D major scale before playing this piece. It helps remind your fingers where they need to go!

The White Cliffs of Dover is a popular World War II song written in 1941. It was made famous by the singer Vera Lynn in 1942 and was sung to the troops during the war. It was such a great hit during WWII because it touched everyone's hearts, giving hope to the British for an end to the war, and attaining peace. This song signifies happiness and well-being.
