

White Cliffs of Dover

Violin

Walter Kent

The image shows a musical score for violin in D major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The score is written on a single staff with a treble clef. It consists of five lines of music. The first line starts with a key signature change to D major and a time signature change to 4/4. The lyrics are: 'There'll be blue birds o - ver the white cliffs of Do-ver, to - mor - row love and laugh-ter, and peace e - ver af - ter, to - mor - row'. The second line starts at measure 6 and includes first and second endings. The lyrics are: 'just you wait and see. There'll be free. The shep-herd will tend his'. The third line starts at measure 12 and includes triplets. The lyrics are: 'when the world is sheep, the val-ley will bloom a - gain. and Jim-my will go to sleep in his'. The fourth line starts at measure 17. The lyrics are: 'own lit - tle room a - gain. There'll be blue birds o - ver the'. The fifth line starts at measure 21 and ends with a double bar line. The lyrics are: 'white cliffs of Do-ver, to - mor - row, just you wait and see.' The score includes various musical notations such as rests, notes, beams, and slurs.

There'll be blue birds o - ver the white cliffs of Do-ver, to - mor - row love and laugh-ter, and peace e - ver af - ter, to - mor - row

6 1. 2. 3.

just you wait and see. There'll be free. The shep-herd will tend his 12 when the world is 3 3 3

sheep, the val-ley will bloom a - gain. and Jim-my will go to sleep in his own lit - tle room a - gain. There'll be blue birds o - ver the 21

17

white cliffs of Do-ver, to - mor - row, just you wait and see.

This is in the key of D major, so you can warm-up with the D major scale before playing this piece. It helps remind your fingers where they need to go!

The White Cliffs of Dover is a popular World War II song written in 1941. It was made famous by the singer Vera Lynn in 1942 and was sung to the troops during the war. It was such a great hit during WWII because it touched everyone's hearts, giving hope to the British for an end to the war, and attaining peace. This song signifies happiness and well-being.