

Don't worry. You will soon begin to recognise them in tunes, and know where to put your fingers, as you did with the low notes, by following the shape of the notes, up and down.

SLOW

Play all these warm-ups with a strong sound on the low note, a small slide of your thumb onto the register and let your breath take you smoothly and easily onto the high note.

Then try these phrases, low then high, with a strong sound. Follow the high notes up and back down. Don't worry about the reading.

SLOW. SMOOTH.

Don't worry about the reading.
