

CLYO UPDATE 6TH NOVEMBER

Hi everyone,

Just a quick update from me about CLYO rehearsals moving online -

There will not be a CLYO rehearsal this week but Dougie is planning to run an online session next week.

This will be done through Google Classrooms.

If you have had the information about setting up your google classroom, you will be able to access our CLYO 'classroom' at any time. For the rehearsals, we'll put a link to a video call on the classroom. This will be a google meet, much like Skype / FaceTime / Zoom etc and needs to be accessed from within the classroom.

Please check that you can access the classroom, view the posts on there from me, and are able to reply. If you cannot, please let me know ASAP (if you haven't already done so). Neither myself nor Dougie has any control over adding members to the classroom so we need to know if there is a problem before the rehearsal next week.

All of our new members that auditioned in Oct / Nov will be receiving their login information shortly. Likewise, anyone that has contacted me to let me know that there is a problem with accessing the classroom or asking for details to be resent. There is a backlog of people being needing to be added to Google Classrooms across all the CLYM groups, so I can't say when this will be, but please do keep checking your junk folder as some of the set up instructions have been landing there.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Many thanks and we look forward to seeing you next week!

Hannah
