

EXTRA CLYO REHEARSAL EVENING

Hi everyone,

Hope you've had a lovely half term break so far. Dougie will be online as normal this evening for a rehearsal (7.30pm for a 7.45pm start) for anyone that is around and would like to come.

A message from Dougie:

Members of CLYO have been doing brilliantly in tackling A London Symphony in our online rehearsals. I have been creating lots of rehearsal tracks at different tempos so we can practise the music in detail as we would in a normal rehearsal and it does work!

My biggest hope is that it helps keep the CLYO family going until we can be together again and, when we do, that this time apart will not have been wasted.

Attendance has been great with around 55 each week but I would still encourage those who might not have come yet or who came to a couple of the early rehearsals - when I didn't really know how to do an online rehearsal! - please do join us.

It does feel like CLYO and the best thing is that we are making - proper - music together.

Sending all best wishes to you and your families as ever.

Dougie x

If anyone hasn't yet been to an online CLYO rehearsal or hasn't been for a while, you're very welcome to come along any time. Everyone is always muted whilst they play and you don't have to have your camera on if you don't want to. The rehearsals take place online using Google Meet which is accessed through the CLYO google classroom, where you will also find all the music to download / print.

Any questions, please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Best wishes,
Hannah
