PREPARING FOR ARTS UNIVERSITY COURSE YEARS 12 and 13 and MATURE LEARNERS

Preparing for Arts University is a six-part, free online course designed to provide practical support for participants who have already begun to apply to, or who are planning to apply for a Foundation Diploma in Art & Design or a creative subject in Higher Education, including university. It is accessed digitally via content on our website such as videos, presentations and worksheets. A tutor will be available to support.

The content of the course will include:

- Instruction on the UCAS application process and preparation of a personal statement.
- Portfolio development including appropriate ways of creating or enhancing digital and physical portfolios and interview skills.
- Individual support tailored to participants' needs including a mock interview. Participants will be encouraged to explore different careers in the creative industries.
- Student Ambassador input about student life and information about finance and course types.
- Information, advice and guidance links and a glossary of terms and opportunities to email your tutor throughout the six week programme. Support will be individually given to match the participants' needs.

Completed forms must be emailed to Leeds Arts University by 20th July 2021 using the following email: progression@leeds-art.ac.uk

We will email you whether or not you have a place on the Preparing for Arts University course.

Please note:
The Progression to Arts University is a widening participation initiative that is part of the Leeds Arts University's Access and Participation Plan, approved by the Office for Students (OfS). The course is very popular and numbers are limited, therefore applications are considered on an individual basis. Participants from under-represented backgrounds or who live in an area of low participation in higher education will be prioritised.
